

I wish I'd known about the PoMM service...

My partner died suddenly and I had such heartache with his children over decisions I was making. I knew what he wanted but he hadn't told them. If only we could have had some advice and guidance before he died....

Peace of Mind Matters is a new project at Citizens Advice Reading. A local free service where we offer advice and information around making plans for end of life and getting your affairs in order.

To contact the service:

Please email:

pomm@citizensadvicereading.org

Visit the PoMM page on our website

rcab.org.uk

Or use the QR code to link directly to the PoMM enquiry form.

